Online portal for help with everyday family life

The Hessian State Government takes care of families in Hessen and supports them with their various everyday challenges.

The main objective of the online family portal is to provide a wide range of information on offers, programmes and services for families in a quick and uncomplicated manner. The portal can be used by interested citizens, service providers and disseminators. Every article contains further information such as publications, legal foundations, application forms, practical tips and links.
