

Overview of our personal and digital workshops

Here you will find helpful workshops that refer to the topic of job application. In our WORKSHOPS on various topics related to the application process, we will show you, for example, what the CV in Germany typically consists of, how to write a convincing cover letter or how to prepare for a job interview. If you have at least a B1 level in German, then we would like to invite you to our workshops.

No workshop dates have been scheduled at present.
